Dr. Meghan Olson (OBGYN) has agreed to join Mason Health's Women's Clinic during the summer of 2025, at the completion of her residency. Dr. Olson grew up in Olympia, so is very familiar with the South Sound. She is currently in residency in Tennessee. Dr. Olson visited Mason Health at the end of May and she was very well thought of and it was highly recommended we pursue an employment agreement with her, of which she signed the week of June 24.
