

PROVIDER PROFILE

Daniel Burris, MD

Primary Care

Dr. Burris joined Mason Clinic Hoodsport Primary Care in September 2018, after completing the Family Medicine residency program at the University of Wyoming in Casper, WY. His training in residency covered full-spectrum medicine, with a particular focus on the skills and knowledge needed to care for a rural community. Growing up on a farm in East Texas, he has a long-held passion for serving small communities.

Dr. Burris graduated from St. George's University School of Medicine in 2015 after completing his training in Brooklyn, New York and Grenada, West Indies. Receiving his medical training in a diversity of settings, Dr. Burris brings a unique perspective to his practice in a rural community. With respect for different cultures having differing perspectives on health, he believes it vital to collaborate with patients in reaching their optimal wellness.

Outside of medicine, Dr. Burris enjoys music, hiking, gardening, and playing board games.
