

PROVIDER PROFILE

Thuy Nguyen, MD

Pediatrics

Dr. Nguyen joined the team at Mason Clinic-Pediatrics in the spring of 2022 with an eagerness to serve Mason County patients.

Dr. Nguyen graduated from medical school in Vietnam, at Pham Ngoc Thach University of Medicine in Ho Chi Minh City in 2010. She then spent three years completing her residency through the Sinai Chicago health system. During residency, she underwent rotations at multiple children's hospitals and specialty clinics in the Chicago area, including Sinai Children's Hospital, Lurie Children's Hospital, Cook County Health, University of Illinois Hospital, Shriners Children's Chicago, and Access Community Health.

During residency, Dr. Nguyen trained especially in newborn care and enjoyed connecting with new mothers and supporting those who wanted to breastfeed.

In 2018, Dr. Nguyen began to work for Altru Health System in Grand Forks, North Dakota, where she provided comprehensive pediatric care for both well and sick children, ages 0 to 21. She also coordinated care for children with complex medical conditions, such as Trisomy 21, Noonan syndrome and epilepsy. She also has experience managing autism spectrum patients.

In her free time, Dr. Nguyen enjoys traveling, trying new restaurants and supporting local businesses and shops, as well as outdoor activities such as biking, hiking and walking.
